

WEEK #1

Knights vs Rangers

What a fun and exciting first T-Ball game for the Knights on Saturday April 25th, 2009. Even though the weather wasn't perfect on Saturday and yes the rain did fall, all the boys and girls of the Knights team played with high spirits. The kids did not mind at all that it was windy and rainy, they played like champs. All the kids had a chance to play in the game. They enjoyed running the bases, catching the ball and throwing the ball. Everyone got a hit and scored a run. What a great first game.

Cardinals vs Blue Jays

The Cardinals opened up the season with a hard fought game against the Blue Jays. Nick Koronkiewicz led the way with a 2 hit, 2 RBI performance. Joining the hit parade was Kyle Sternberg who also had 2 hits. Defensively, the Cardinals were led by Cameron Mitchell, who had a diving stop in the outfield & a great putout at third. Josh Cray also excelled on defense, making a couple put outs at 1st base. Two innings of flawless ball was turned in by catcher Chris Hallum.

RED RACERS vs DRAGONS

The long awaited opening game for the Red Racers vs. Dragons brought out a crowd of great fan supporters. Everyone was cheered on with loud applause and praise as each Red Racer batted single hits. Anticipation filled the air as the Red Racers were confronted with impressive hits from the players on the Dragons. The Red Racers played hard and showed fantastic talent against the Dragons. Great way to start the season and remarkable team effort, Red Racers! GO RED RACERS!!!!!!
